Re: Dendra Dengler, FPPC#090438

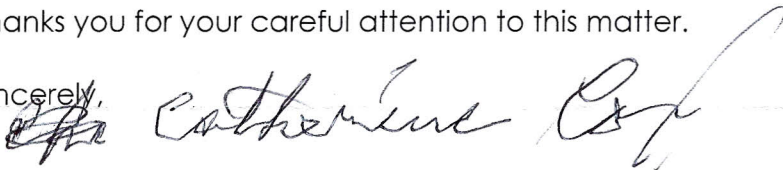

Honorable Members of the Commission:

I have lived in Manila most of my life. My parents moved here in 1947. I heard about a conflict of interest charge against Dendra Dengler. Dendra was my children's and grandchildren's preschool teacher. She worked with very poor children to help them get a good start in life. She is a very conscientious person, who has always done everything in the interest of Manila's children. To place this harsh charge and fee on Dendra does not seem fair.

The community is very small. It is hard to find people who will represent us and attend Board meetings and many other associated meetings. It would seem that following through on this harsh action will discourage her and others from representing their constituents in the community.

Thanks you for your careful attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
