

Chapter 2.44 - RESTRICTIONS ON CANDIDATE CONTRIBUTIONS

Sections:

2.44.010 - Campaign contributions—Amounts.

It is unlawful for any person, business, firm, political action committee, or any vested interest group to contribute more than two hundred fifty dollars during any calendar year to any one candidate seeking an elective office in the municipal government of the city. The support of more than one candidate by campaign contributions totalling no more than two hundred fifty dollars for each of more than one candidate will not constitute a violation of this chapter.

(Ord. 80 § 1, 1984)

2.44.020 - Violation—Penalty.

Any person, business, firm, political action committee, or vested interest group who violates the provisions of this chapter is guilty of an infraction. Any person, business, firm, political action committee, or vested interest group convicted of an infraction shall be penalized in accordance with the provisions of Section 36900(b) of the Government Code of the state.

(Ord. 80 § 2, 1984)
